WELCOME TO THE UNIQUE WORLD OF 'THE HIT SQUAD'

When we took the decision to launch THE HIT SQUAD into that newly burgeoning niche market - the budget label - in early 1989, we were unaware that the company would, so quickly, become a major software publisher in its own right.

Currently boasting a catalogue of over 345 eight bit and 186 sixteen bit titles, the bed rock philosophy of the company remains the same today as it did at its launch.

Quite simply, our aim is to provide the ever expanding leisure/educational software user base the opportunity to purchase classic, quality titles at a greatly reduced retail price.

This publication is testament to the success of that philosophy.

As a member of the Ocean Software group of companies, THE HIT SQUAD exclusively publish Ocean products into the budget arena.

As well as Ocean's premium product line up, a quick look at any market report of the UK's leading software publishers provides a good pointer as to the other companies whose classic titles make up THE HIT SQUAD range of product.

Domark, Electronic Arts, Accolade, Activision, UbiSoft, Europress - the list grows monthly, as do the major film licenses THE HIT SQUAD boasts in its catalogue. From Batman to The Simpsons, T2 to WWF the 'big names' always make their way onto THE HIT SQUAD label.

The rest of this publication will give you a taste of the exciting future ahead for THE HIT SQUAD. Our superb product line up for the end of '93 and into the new year provides an unrivalled selection of truly top titles; THE HIT SQUAD will, I promise you, continue to get bigger and better.

Keep on gaming !
